OPFMA Membership Benefits

The Ohio Public Facilities Maintenance Association (OPFMA) is a (501)(c)(3) not for profit organization devoted to continuing education and professional development of public facilities maintenance employees throughout Ohio. OPFMA organization was created in 1987 for the public maintenance personnel and it strives to assist their ever growing job requirements.

The organization interacts with official state agencies, associations and organizations to promote energy efficient use of equipment, old and new, safety and preventive maintenance. It provides training for building operators and a forum for maintenance supervisors and other administration level officials.

OPFMA offers its members benefits what could assist members' in their work performance:

- a platform of experience exchange between maintenance people at all levels of responsibility, from the director to the newest sanitary engineer;
- include all public facilities from city and county to schools, to colleges and universities, museums and libraries, state owned medical facilities, correction and rehabilitation facilities, etc.;
- issue a quarterly newsletter a forum for the maintenance employees and it is distributed via the internet ; we welcome members' input, questions or sharing their experience
- offer an internet site covering organization's issues, latest information available an activities, other programs schedules, etc;
- https://twitter.com/OPFMA offers another source of educational information
- Membership discount when attending OPFMA seminars as well as for the Annual Conference and Trade Show packed with 24 to 30 sessions on four to six tracks, a trade show, entertainment, networking, etc., held in Ohio's capital Columbus!
- membership in good standing also gives one hour credit toward building operator certificate yearly renewal and more extra credit toward the building operator certificate renewal is offered by OPFMA Annual Conference
- offers a platform for member institutions and business organizations interaction creating a mutually advantageous business relationship among Ohioans
- OPFMA Chapters offer another opportunity for networking with piers & Colleagues at the local level

OPFMA has three standing committees (Marketing and Membership, Publications and Education, and Conference), led by Board members and the Executive Committee comprised of the President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, Ascending Officer & a past president)

There are no extra financial obligations to become a Board member, other than the institution you represents is an OPFMA member in good standing actively supporting OPFMA activities and the willingness to volunteer your talents, experience and influence for OPFMA cause and wellbeing.
